

School Song
Tune of "John Browns Body."

We're the Margaret Eaton girls
We learn to work and play
We learn to teach expression
And the proper thing to say.
No matter where we roam
We will think of the school
Where we strived for the good and beautiful

The physicals teach exercises
For to make you strong
And correct your standing
If your positions wrong
No matter where you roam
We will think of the school
Where we strived for the good and beautiful

When we have our closing
And the Seniors go away
We will hate to see them go
But glad the juniors stay
No matter where we roam
We will think of the school
Where we strived for the good and beautiful.

"Do out the duty"
Is our motto for the year
To remember in the future
When we are far or near
No matter where we roam
We will think of the school
Where we strived for the good and beautiful.

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.